

The Honorable James L. Robart

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMAL KAZIMI,

Defendant.

NO. CR24-127-JLR

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Upon the unopposed motion of the United States, and the Court being advised as to the nature of this case and having considered the record and files herein, the Court finds there is good cause to grant the motion and:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that discovery materials discussed in the Motion for a Protective Order and referred to therein as “Protected Material,” marked specially as “Protected Material,” may be produced to counsel for the defendant in this case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defense counsel shall not provide Protected Material or copies thereof to any other person outside his or her law office, including the defendant or his family or associates. A defendant residing at a correctional facility is permitted to review the Protected Material, consistent with the regulations established by the correctional facility, with or without counsel in a controlled environment at the

1 correctional facility, but is prohibited from printing out, copying, or otherwise
2 disseminating the discovery. A defendant on pretrial release is permitted to review the 3 Protected Material at the offices of his counsel, but is prohibited from printing out, 4 copying, or disseminating the discovery.

5 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the defendants, defense counsel, and 6 others to whom disclosure of the content of the Protected Material may be necessary to 7 assist with the preparation of the defense (including members of the defense team such as 8 investigators, paralegals, law clerks, experts, and assistants), shall not disclose the 9 Protected Material or its contents, other than as necessary for the preparation of defenses
10 at trial and in subsequent appellate proceedings, if necessary. Specifically, the attorneys 11 of record and members of the defense team acknowledge that providing copies of the 12 Protected Material to the defendant and other persons is prohibited, and agree not to 13 duplicate or provide copies of the Protected Material to the defendant and other persons.
14 This order does not limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the 15 Western District of Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to members of the 16 United States Attorney's Office, federal law enforcement agencies, the Court, or 17 witnesses in order to pursue other investigations or the prosecution in this case. Nor does 18 it limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of 19 Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to the defense as necessary to comply 20 with the government's discovery obligations.

21 Nothing in this Protective Order prohibits defense counsel from showing the 22 Protected Material, or reviewing its contents, with his or her respective defendant or with 23 others to whom disclosure may be necessary to assist with the preparation of the defense 24 at trial and in subsequent appellate proceedings, if necessary.

25 Further, upon written agreement with counsel for the government, members of a 26 defense team may provide copies of specific Protected Material, or redacted versions of 27 such material, to the defendant. When seeking the government's agreement to give such

1 a copy to the defendant, members of the defense team will identify with reasonable
2 particularity (including, where available, the specific Bates-numbered pages and/or 3 recording descriptions) the specific material defense counsel proposes to give to the 4 defendant. Unless expressly stated otherwise by the government, copies of Protected 5 Material to be provided to the defendant will continue to be Protected Material subject to 6 all of the protections of the Court's Order, with the sole exception that a copy can be 7 given only to the defendant (and not shared with anyone else outside the defense team).
8 If counsel for the government and counsel for the defendant cannot reach agreement on 9 whether particular portions of the Protected Material or redacted versions of Protected 10 Material should be given to a defendant under these conditions, defense counsel may 11 raise the issue with the Court by way of a motion.

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if counsel for any party finds it necessary to file 13 any documents marked as Protected Material, the material shall be filed under seal with 14 the Court.

15 Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from seeking modification of this 16 Protective Order or from objecting to discovery that it believes to be otherwise improper.
17 The parties agree that in the event that compliance with this Order makes it difficult for 18 defense counsel to adhere to their Sixth Amendment obligations, or otherwise imposes an 19 unworkable burden on counsel, defense counsel shall bring any concerns about the terms
20 of the Order to the attention of the government. The parties shall then meet and confer
21 with the intention of finding a mutually acceptable solution. In the event that the parties 22 cannot reach such a solution, defense counsel shall have the right to bring any concerns
23 about the scope or terms of the Order to the attention of the Court by way of a motion.

24 Nothing in this Order should be construed as imposing any discovery obligations 25 on the government that are different from those imposed by case law and Rule 16 of the 26 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The failure to designate any materials as provided

1 in paragraph 2, above, shall not constitute a waiver of a party's assertion that the 2 materials are covered by this Protective Order.

3 This Protective Order does not constitute a ruling on the question of whether any 4 particular material is properly discoverable or admissible and does not constitute any 5 ruling on any potential objection to the discoverability of any material.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that at the conclusion of the case, the Protected
7 Material shall be returned to the United States, or destroyed, or otherwise stored in a 8 manner to ensure that it is not subsequently duplicated or disseminated in violation of this 9 Protective Order.

10 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the provisions of this Order shall not terminate 11 at the conclusion of this prosecution.
